

OIL TROUBLE

anta Fe driver pops
ood, finds 9-foot boa
onstrictor

METRO & NM >> C1

DAWN PLA

OF T

NEW MEXICO'S LEADING NEWS SOURCE

ALBUQUERQUE JOURNAL

AL.COM

Journal Publishing Co.

FR
JULY

Bad' S SO GOOD

'Breaking Bad' picks up 16 Emmy for its final eight episodes

"Thank you everyone for the incredibly kind words. I feel so blessed."

The TV show — which is based and was filmed in Albuquerque

s having a last hurrah.
winning TV show er 16 nominations for

COURTESY OF AMC

Bryan
Cranston,
Aaron Paul and Anna Gunn got Emmy

911 call shed lig VA resp

Fire Department heart attack proto

Copyright © 2014 Albuquerque J

BY COLLEEN HEILD
JOURNAL INVESTIGATIVE REPORT

The first of two 911
ququerque's Veterans Affairs remained calm as Vietnam veteran Jim Napoleon Garcia lay dying on June 30 in the center's cafeteria.

"It's the canteen service and the patient
coded, nonresponsive,
chest compressions
right now," the unidentified female caller said.

She told the Albuquerque Fire Department dispatcher the victim was "bleeding actively out of his mouth and nose."

"We called our rapid response here at the hospital but unfortunately they won't respond to him because he's not

albuquerque, santa fe | latin band

TWENTY YEARS STRONG

Nosotros is celebrating a milestone

Nosotros is celebrating its 20th year as a band and has released an album called "XX."

By Adrian Gomez
Of the Journal

Twenty years. This is the milestone Latin band Nosotros is celebrating this year.

"We've been through a lot," says Randy Sanchez. "There have been plenty of peaks and valleys for us. And we're happy to still be around."

Sanchez is the guitarist and does some vocals for the band. It also consists of Dennis Jasso, Shane Derk, Carlos Fontana, Felipe Ruibal, Gilbert Uribe, David Weeks and Ricky Carrido.

While the band is celebrating its 20th year, it also is releasing a compilation album simply called, "XX." Sanchez says the album contains 17 tracks, one of which is brand new.

"We wrote 'Aqui y Alla' recently and figured it would work well in this compilation," he says. "It's fun to see how far we've come as a band."

Formed in Las Cruces, Nosotros has been through various incarnations over the years. The majority of the current lineup has been solid for about six to seven years, Sanchez says.

"We're now at a point where the rhythm section has like ESP," he says. "They know exactly where each person is going and it all works out. That's the bonus to having bonded so well."

Sanchez says the compilation spans the band's entire catalog.

"There's a difference in how we recorded all of the albums," he says. "The early ones were done in Las Cruces and the recent ones have been done in Albuquerque and Santa Fe."

Sanchez has grown as a musician over the course of the two decades.

"When we first started playing, I just liked to jam," he says. "I've picked up a lot of advice and use it to my advantage. The band has now become a vehicle for us to get all of our music out."

Sanchez says he thinks a new album will be out sometime next year.

"We're raising the funds right now," he says. "We've reached a really good place in our career."

Nosotros

WHEN AND WHERE: 7 tonight, Albuquerque Museum Amphitheater, 2000 Mountain NW; 7 p.m. Saturday, July 12, Santa Fe Bandstand, Santa Fe Plaza

HOW MUCH: $12-$14 plus fees at holdmyticket.com or 886-1251 for Albuquerque show; Santa Fe show is free